Key word: "Babur namen", Timurids, genealogy, written sources, V.V. Bartold, Babur, Umarsheikh.

The history of the Timurids has always been in the center of attention of world historians. As orientalist V. V. Bartold notes, the researcher of the Timurid period "is not concerned about the lack of information, but about its abundance. Since they are scattered in many libraries, they must first be examined from a critical point of view and published"*. Let us dwell on the significance of the Boburnom as a source for the study of the genealogy of the Timurids.

Due to the increased interest in the history of the Timurids, historical sources are republished, scientific, popular science and fiction works are created. Among them are T. Fayziev, A. Ziya, Sh. One can single out works by Olyanova, Hakim Satori, etc. about the Timurids[†]. These are the works "Tuzuklari Timur", "Muizz ul-Ansab", "Zafarnama" by Nizamiddin Shami, "Zafarnama" by Sharafuddin Ali Yazdi, "Muntahab ut-tavarikh Muyniy" by Munniddin Natanzi, "Ajaib ul maqdur fi ahbari Taimur". Ibn Arabshah, Hafizi Abrū, "Majmuayi Hafizi Abrū" and "Zubdat ut-tawarikh", "Razvat us-safo" by Mirkhand, "Matlai sadain va majmai bahrain" by Abdurazzak Samarkandi, "Mujmal-i Fasihi" by Fasih. Khawafi, "Baburnoma" by Zahiriddin Muhammad Babur, "Boburnoma" by Giyasuddin Muhammad Khondamir Created while studying such sources as "Habib us-siyar fi ahbar afrod ul bashar" and "Khulasat ul ahbar", Gulbadan Begim" by Humayunnama and many other scientific researches.

Among the above-mentioned sources, the historical significance of "Boburnoma" is given by the fact that it was written by a representative of the Timurid dynasty. Taking into account the valuable work of this source on the history and geography of the peoples of Central Asia, Afghanistan, India and Iran, we analyze the information about the genealogical tree of the Timurids. The author did not aim to cover family history in "Boburnom", but in the narration of events, based on the historical situation, he mentioned the name of this or that Murza and Begum. The source provides detailed information about the life journey, birth and genealogy, appearance and appearance, manners and character, battles, regions, wives and concubines, descendants and umros of some murza, but the names of some mirza and begim are mentioned superficially once or several times.

For instance, Zahiriddin Muhammad Babur Mirza gave a detailed account of his father Umar Sheikh Mirza ibn Sultan Abu Ilaïd Mirza[‡], his uncles Sultan Ahmad Mirza[§], Sultan Mahmud Mirza^{} and Sultan Hussein Mirza ibn Mansur Mirza^{††}, who was considered one of the greatest rulers among the Timurids. While "Boburnoma" chronologically includes the years 1493-1529, the description of the events of 1510-1518 and 1521-1524 is not covered or has not reached us for some reason. Occasionally there are also data reflecting political processes up to 1493.

We have compiled the following table according to the order in which the names of the Timurids appear in the "Boburnama"^{‡‡}:

	Timurid princes	Бетлар ^{§§}

Although the information about Timurid princesses in Boburnom is extremely important, we will not dwell on it now.

Chronological information about the dates of birth and death of Timurid murzas is also found in the source, but it is not complete. We will also show this information in the text according to the order of meeting the page:

1. Umar Sheikh Mirza (860 AH, Samarkand - 899 AH).
2. Jahangir Mirza (two years younger than Zahiruddin Muhammad Babur. p. 11).
3. Nasir Mirza (four years younger than Zahiruddin Muhammad Babur. p. 11).
4. Sultan Ahmed Mirza (855 Hijra-899 Aksuv. p. 19).
5. Malik Muhammad Mirza (executed - 899 AH p. 23).
6. Sultan Mahmud Mirza (857H - 900H, p. 26).
7. Ulugbek Mirza (executed - 853 d.h. - 900 d.h. p. 45).
8. Baysungur Mirza (born in 822 AH, Hisar - executed in 905 AH, p. 63).
9. Sultan Ali Mirza (executed in 906 AH. p. 72).
10. Sultan Husayn Mirza (842 A.H., Hiri - 511 A.H., Baba Ilohi. p. 146).
11. Haydar Mirza (died under his father - p. 150).
12. Muhammad Mas'um Mirza ("A bullet went through his father's life" - p. 150).
13. Farrukh Hussein Mirza ("Farrukh Hussein was a Mirza, but he did not live long" - page 150).
14. Muhammad Husayn Mirza (in an account in 912 AH: "I had no chance, Shaybani Khan killed him and sent him to execution" - p. 181).
15. Abulmukhsin Mirza and Kepak Mirza (in the 913 hijra report, "Abulmukhsin Mirzadin's disobedience appears. Kepak Mirza did not distinguish between the two myrzas, and they sent the heads of both myrzas when Shaybak Khan Puli was in Solor" - p. 187).
16. Humayun (in a statement of 913 AH: "At the end of this year, on Tuesday evening, on the fourth day of the month of Zulkad, the sun was in the sign of Hat, and in the arch was Mutawallid of Kabul" - p. 195).
17. Hindol (reported in 925 AH): "After a few days the son of my husband passed away, and three days after his death his mother brought him to our house and held him, so we sent him the news of his death."When he received the Bahrah, he broke the news, tayammunan and tafa'ulan Hindol put his horse" - p. 201).
18. Farooq (in the statement of 933 Hijrah): "Bek Weiss brought the news of Faruk's birth in the month of Muharram. If nos brought the news on foot, then, to the joy of Vala, bek Weiss arrived in this month. On the night of Odinah, the twenty-first month of Shawwal a boy was born, Faruk was the season" - 278 p.).
19. Alamon (born in 935 A.D. - 320 pages).

20. Khan Mirza (statement 936 hijra. "Nine hundred and thirty-four khan-mirza traveled the world"- 352 pages).

If we conclude from the foregoing, extensive research in this regard is necessary to better understand the significance of the source of the Boburnom work in the study of the genealogy of the Timurids. This, in turn, makes it possible to reveal more truthfully the place of the representatives of the dynasty, which left a bright trace in the history of our country, in the sphere of political power, the cause and essence of the development and decline of the Kingdom.
